JICA

JICA Approach to Triangular Cooperation

May 29, 2007

Teruyoshi Kumashiro
Resident Representative
JICA USA Office

別紙 6

JICA

Value of SSC: Effectiveness in Promoting Development

1. Develops capacity of developing country receiving assistance from other South countries with similar economic, social, cultural conditions

2. Develops capacity of developing country providing assistance

JICA

Increasing Aid Effectiveness

1. Customize to Meet Specific Needs

2. Form Strategic Partnerships to Address Regional and Global Issues

3. Establish Coordination Mechanisms

Customization (1)

Case 1: Agriculture Extension Training in Thailand (2006-08)

For nationals of Ethiopia, Kenya, Malawi, Tanzania, Uganda and Zambia

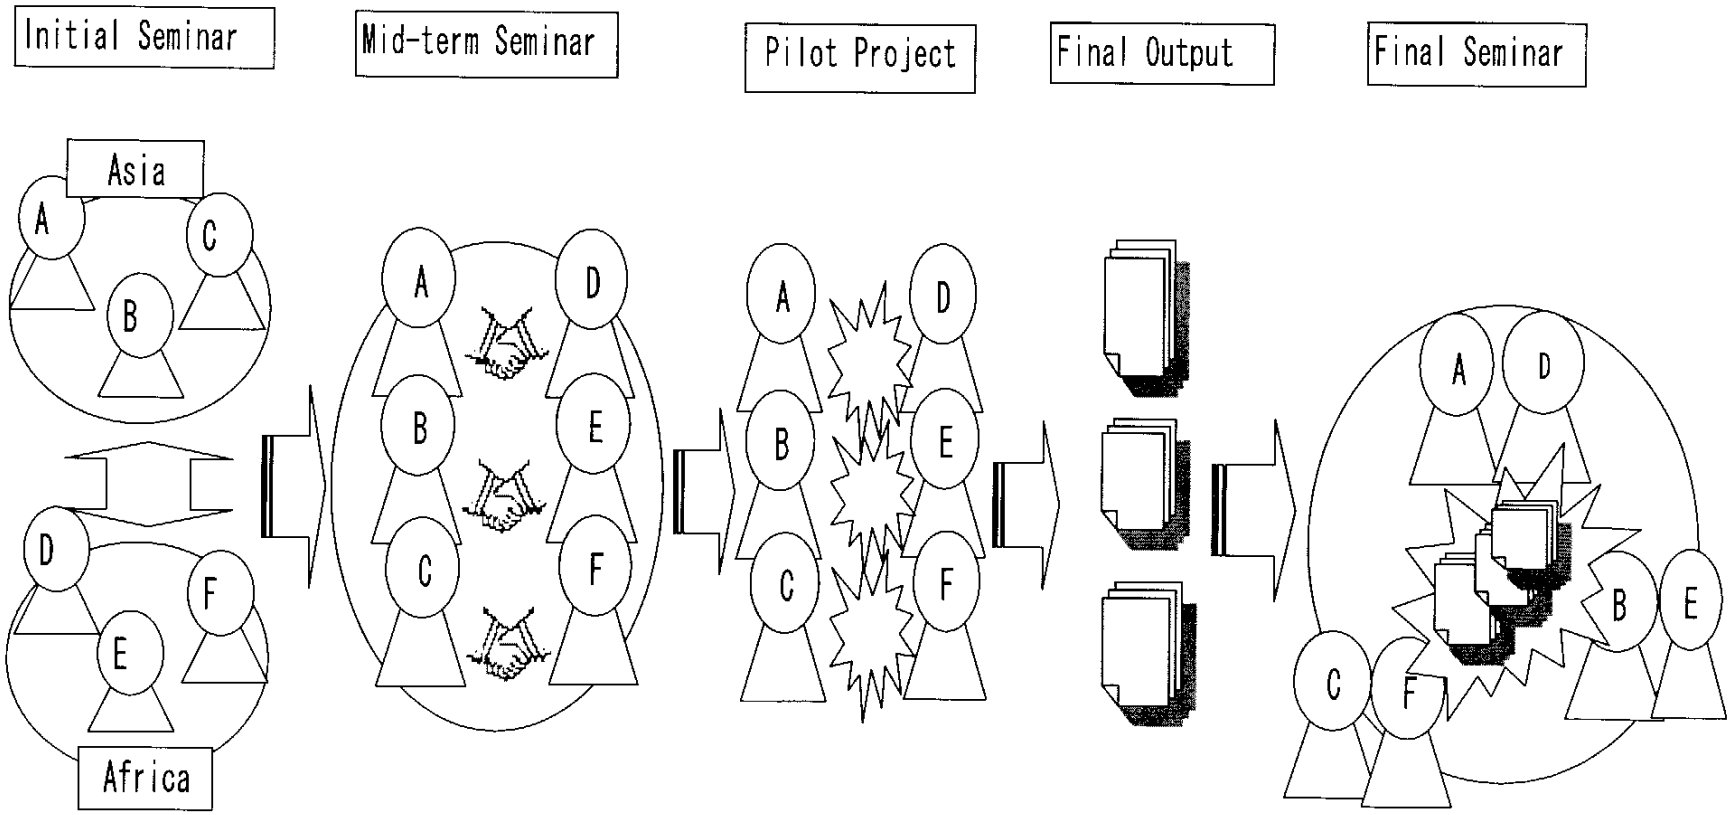
Before: Policymakers design course at preparatory workshop in Thailand

After : JICA and TICA (Thailand International Cooperation Agency) send joint mission

Customization (2)

Case 2: Asia Africa Knowledge Co-Creation Program (2005-)

- Project formulated in meetings among Asian, African institutions
- Pilot project conducted with partner countries: rural development program (Thailand, 2005-06) and health sector program (Sri Lanka, 2006-07)



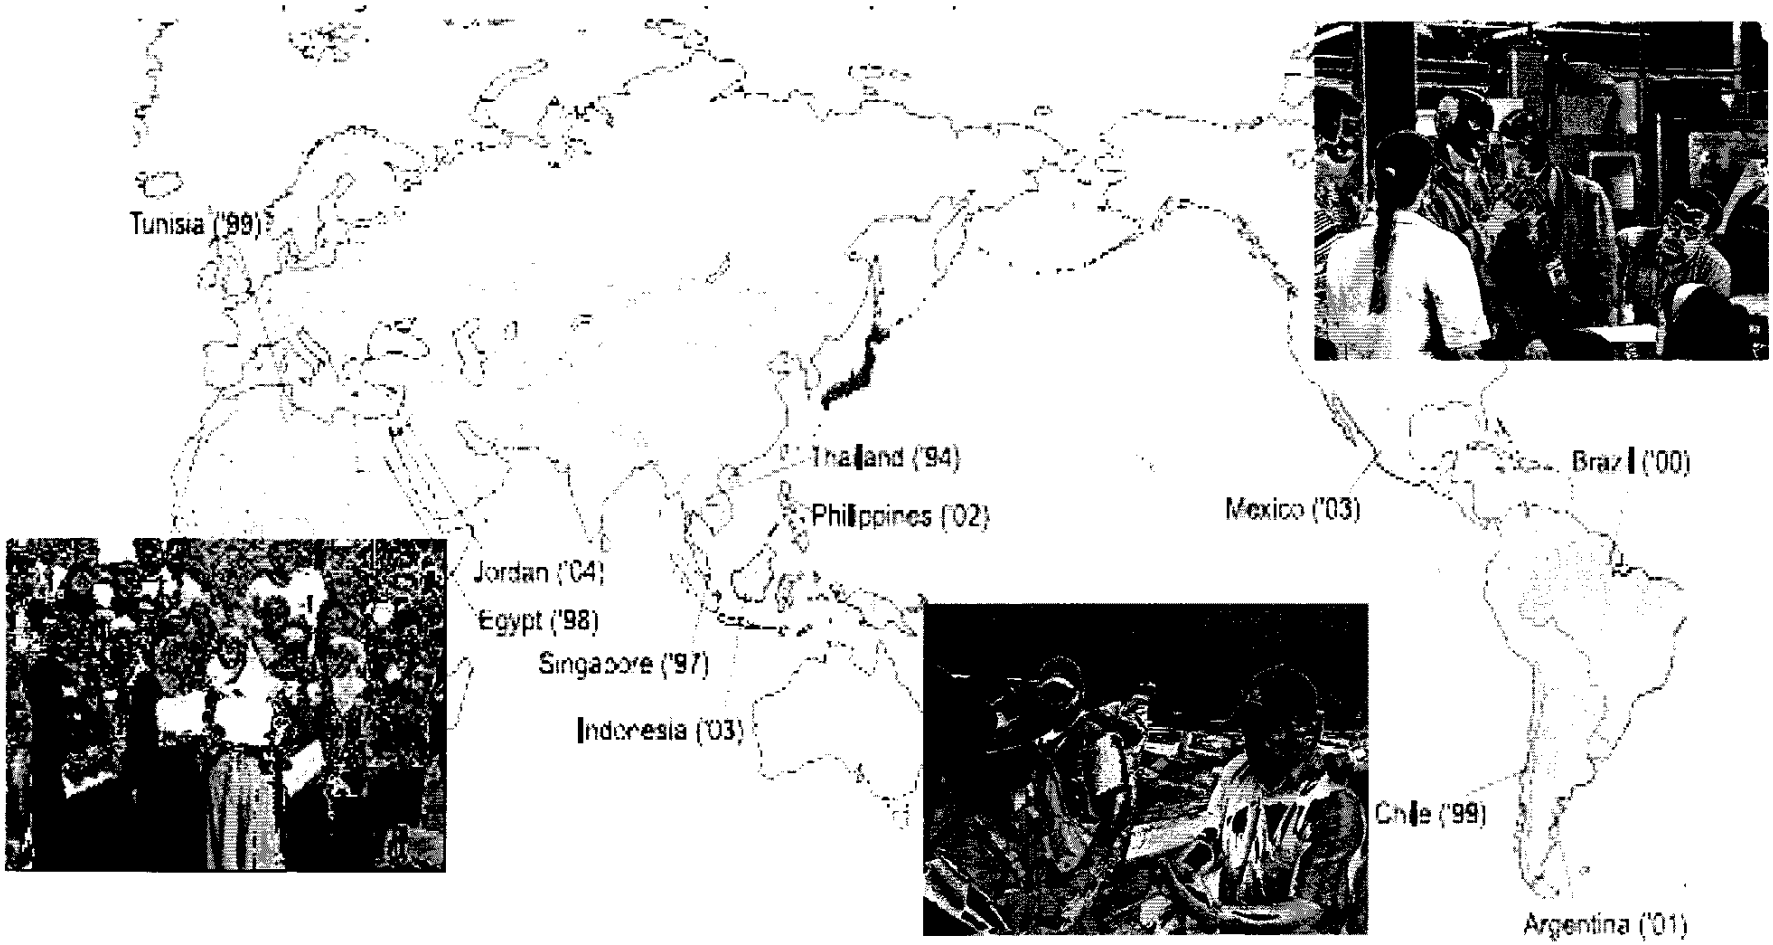
Case 3: Microfinance Training in Indonesia (2004-06)

Partnership with Indonesia and NAM CSSTC (Non-Aligned Movement Center for South-South Cooperation) for 20 countries in Africa

For Egypt, Kenya, Madagascar, Namibia, Sudan, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe in 2006

Japan's Strategic Partnership Program To Support Development

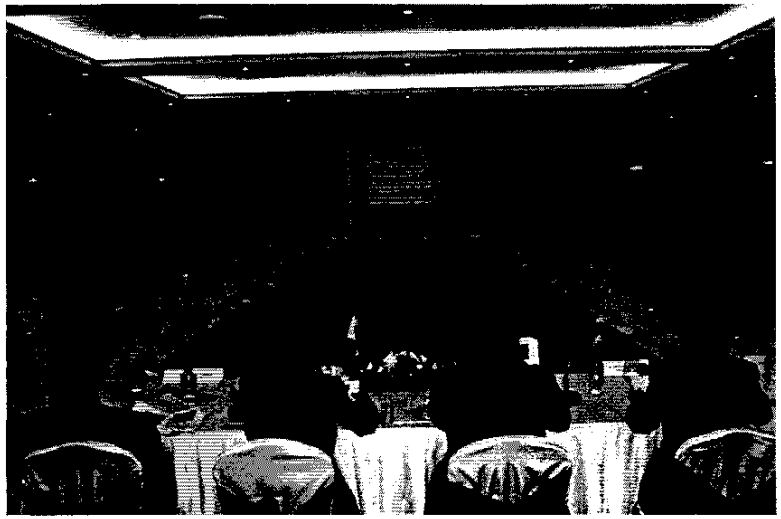
With Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Egypt, Indonesia, Jordan, Mexico, Morocco, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Tunisia



Coordination Mechanism

Case 4: JARCOM (JICA-ASEAN Regional Cooperation Meeting)

- ASEAN countries and JICA organize an annual meeting to formulate projects that match the needs of new ASEAN members and the aid resources of senior ASEAN members



- In 2006, Initiative for ASEAN Integration (IAI) certified 11 projects proposed by JARCOM

Key Issues Ahead

Improve effectiveness of triangular cooperation in promoting development

- Engage policymakers
- Collaborate with traditional and emerging development partners in promoting SSC

Thank you.