The Chief of Protocol of the United Nations presents her compliments to the Permanent Representatives accredited to the United Nations and has the honour to bring to their attention the following:

In order to be able to advise the Secretary-General of the United Nations and promptly update Protocol files used throughout the United Nations system, as well as the Protocol website, the Chief of Protocol would like to remind the Permanent Representatives that they should kindly notify her of any change in the Governments of the respective Member States within the shortest possible time.

In case of changes on the level of Head of State, Head of Government or Minister for Foreign Affairs, the communication should be delivered promptly to the Chief of Protocol and it should include the exact spelling of the name of the incoming official, his/her full title, marital status (name of the spouse if applicable) and the date of appointment.

The Chief of Protocol would like to kindly ask the Permanent Representatives to revise the information currently available on the Protocol website (<http://missions.un.int/protocol>) and communicate to her discrepancies, if this is the case.

The Chief of Protocol of the United Nations avails herself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Representatives accredited to the United Nations the assurances of her highest consideration.
