Mikhail Kamynin, the Spokesman of Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Answers a Question from RIA Novosti Regarding an Upcoming Meeting of the European Trio, Russia, China and the US on the Iranian Nuclear Program

722-26-04-2006

Question: How could you comment on the reports of a planned meeting on May 2 in Paris of the representatives of the European trio, Russia, China and the US on the Iranian nuclear program?

Answer: A regular meeting is scheduled for May 2 in Paris of the Political Directors/Deputy Foreign Ministers of France, Britain, Germany, the Russian Federation, China and the United States of America to continue the exchange of views on the situation regarding the nuclear activities of Iran. These consultations will be held with regard for, above all, the IAEA Director General report solicited in the UNSC President's statement of March 29, which must be submitted before the end of this week.

From the Russian side Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs Sergey Kislyak will take part in the meeting.
