Elections for ECOSOC's Bodies

837-15-05-2006

As a result of the elections held at the resumed organizational session of the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) to the Council's bodies Russia was re-elected without vote to the Executive Board of the World Food Program (WFP), the Governing Council of the United Nations Human Settlements Program (UN-Habitat) and also the Committee for Program and Coordination (CPC).

This result attests to support by the ECOSOC member countries of the principled and consistent policy of Russia in maintaining the authority of the main socioeconomic body of the UN and invigorating its coordinating role in the activities of the funds, programs and special institutions of the United Nations system.
