Mister Chair,

Jamaica commends the work programme of the Population Division as proposed for the upcoming period. The technical work of the Division continues to enrich and facilitate effective implementation, monitoring and evaluation of our national population and development programme.

I would like to put on the table for further consideration by the Secretariat, the need for exploratory and in-depth analyses and studies of the interlinkages between population and the three dimensions of sustainable development. This will facilitate the constructing of multidimensional indicators for more effective measurement of the relationships between population and sustainable development.

Thank you, Chair.
