The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to notify them of four judicial vacancies in the United Nations Dispute Tribunal (“UNDT”) for the half-time judge positions.

The UNDT is the first instance internal United Nations court for employment-related disputes between the Organization and its staff members. The UNDT, together with the appellate instance Appeals Tribunal, is part of the internal system of administration of justice at the United Nations established by the General Assembly in its resolutions 61/261, 62/228 and 63/253.

The composition of the UNDT, the mandatory requirements for applicants to the four judicial vacancies as well as information about the selection process are provided in the attached vacancy announcement. The vacancy announcement calls for interested individuals to submit their applications by 31 March 2019.

The Permanent Missions are invited to bring the vacancy announcement to the attention of qualified nationals of their country as well as to the Chief Justice or head of the judiciary in their country and to take any other measures that would assist the United Nations in attracting a pool of outstanding candidates reflecting geographical diversity as well as gender balance.

The vacancy announcement is also posted on the website of the United Nations internal justice system: <http://www.un.org/en/internaljustice/overview/judicial-vacancies.shtml> (in English) and <http://www.un.org/fr/internaljustice/overview/judicial-vacancies.shtml> (in French).

The Permanent Missions are welcome to seek any additional information that would assist them in reaching out to qualified nationals of their country from Ms. Jelena Gudurić, Special Assistant and Legal Officer, Office of Administration of Justice at +917-367-4852.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.
